

Let all the EARTH cry out to GOD with JOY.

All vital Christian life needs periodic renewal with reflection, quiet and continuing education.

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus sends out another group besides the Twelve. The apostles had just exhibited an excessive concern for their position, as first manifested in their concern about which of them was the greatest, and then in their efforts to exclude from the ministry of exorcisms those who were not part of their group (Luke 9:46-50). They had also asked if they should destroy a city whose citizens had rejected them (9:52-54). From these events Jesus discerns that the Twelve are in need of more quality time with Jesus in order to help them solidify healthy perspectives that will sustain them over the long haul.

So Jesus sends out another seventy-two to go and prepare the way for him in the towns to which he will be going. This action has two goals. First, it gives the preparation for ministry. Second, it enables the Twelve to have more time with Jesus so that they can develop a better perspective on what Christian life is all about. Jesus wants to make sure that their ministry does not outrun the values that undergird it.

We see from the reaction of the seventy-two to their ministries that getting caught up in the power of God working through them is a danger that affects all. The seventy-two return from their journeys rejoicing, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name" (10:17). Jesus has to remind them, too, that their focus should be on where they are going rather than on the flattering portraits of themselves that their ministry may be evoking in their minds: "Do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven: (10:20).

We must always make time to immerse ourselves in the Christian vision so that our Christian ministry may be properly ordered.

RESPECT LIFE

se is
II

"Without respect for life, without respect for family, society simply does not exist...all (other) rights presuppose the right to life. If the right to life is not defended, the defense of all these other rights is useless. It becomes a lie, because it would mean that the defense to the right to work, to society etc. applies only to some, and not to all." (Bishop Elio Sgreccia, Vice President of the Vatican's Pontifical Academy for Life, May 2004 television interview for Defending Life, EWTN)
